HP CUSTOMER TERMS – SUPPORT

1. Parties. These terms represent the agreement (Agreement) governing the purchase of support services from HP PPS Australia Pty Ltd (HP) by the Customer entity (Customer) as each are identified in the execution section. If Customer is a consumer within the meaning of the Australian Consumer Law under the Australian Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth), refer to section 24.
2. Orders. Order means the accepted order together with any supporting material which the parties identify as incorporated either by attachment or reference, including product lists, hardware or software specifications, standard or negotiated service descriptions, data sheets and their supplements, and statements of work (SOWs), published warranties and service level agreements (Supporting Material). Supporting Material is available to Customer either in hard copy or by accessing a designated HP website.
3. Scope and order placement. This Agreement starts on the Effective Date and continues for the Term unless terminated earlier. If no Term is specified, the Agreement continues until terminated in accordance with its terms. It may be used by Customer either for a single Order or as a framework for multiple Orders and may also be used on a global basis by the parties' affiliates, meaning any entity controlled by, controlling, or under common control with either party (Affiliates). The parties can confirm their agreement to these terms either by signing below or by referencing this Agreement on Orders. Affiliates participate under these terms by placing orders which specify service delivery in the same country as the HP Affiliate accepting the Order, referencing this Agreement, and specifying any additional terms or amendments to reflect local law or business practices.
4. Order arrangements. Customer may place orders with HP through our website, customer-specific portal, or by letter, fax or e-mail. Where appropriate, orders must specify a delivery date. If Customer extends the delivery date of an existing Order beyond ninety (90) days, then it will be considered a new order.
5. Prices and taxes. Prices are as quoted in writing by HP or, in the absence of a written quote, as set out on our website, customer-specific portal, or HP's published list price at the time an order is submitted to HP. Prices are exclusive of taxes (including goods and services tax), duties, and fees (including installation, shipping, and handling) unless otherwise quoted. If a withholding tax is required by law, please contact the HP order representative to discuss appropriate procedures.
6. Invoices and payment. Customer must pay all invoiced amounts within thirty (30) days of HP's invoice date. HP may suspend or cancel performance of open Orders or services if Customer does not pay amounts owed on or before the due date.
7. Support services. HP will deliver support services as described in the applicable Supporting Material, which includes a description of HP's offering, eligibility requirements, service limitations and Customer responsibilities, as well as the Customer systems supported.
8. Eligibility. HP's service, support and warranty commitments do not cover claims resulting from the following and HP may charge separately for services relating to such claims at the applicable published service rates:
 - (a) improper use, site preparation, or site or environmental conditions or other non-compliance with applicable Supporting Material;
 - (b) modifications or improper system maintenance or calibration not performed or authorised by HP;
 - (c) failure or functional limitations of any non-HP software or product impacting systems receiving HP support or service;
 - (d) malware (e.g. virus, worm etc.) not introduced by HP;
 - (e) abuse, negligence, accident, fire or water damage, electrical disturbances, transportation by Customer, or other causes beyond HP's control; or

Term (if applicable): _____

- (f) use of HP-branded hardware and software in combination with non-HP branded products except where authorised or recommended by HP in Supporting Material.
9. Dependencies. HP's ability to deliver services will depend on Customer's reasonable and timely cooperation and the accuracy and completeness of any information from Customer needed to deliver the services.
10. Change Orders. HP and Customer must each appoint a project representative to serve as the principal point of contact in managing the delivery of services and in dealing with issues that may arise. Requests to change the scope of services or deliverables will require a change order signed by both parties.
11. Services performance. HP must perform services using generally recognized commercial practices and standards. HP will re-perform any service that fails to meet this requirement where so notified by Customer.
12. Exclusion of warranty. To the full extent permitted by law, HP excludes all representations, warranties, terms and conditions, whether express or implied (and including those implied by statute, custom, law or otherwise), except as expressly set out in this Agreement, including implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title and non-infringement.
13. Intellectual property rights. No transfer of ownership of any intellectual property occurs under this Agreement. Customer grants HP a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free right and licence to any intellectual property that is necessary for HP and its designees to perform ordered services.
14. Intellectual property rights infringement. HP will defend and/or settle any claims against Customer alleging that an HP-branded product or service supplied under this Agreement infringes the intellectual property rights of a third party, provided Customer promptly notifies HP of the claim and cooperates with our defence. HP may modify the product or service so as to be non-infringing and materially equivalent, or we may procure a licence. If these options are unavailable, HP will refund to Customer the amount paid for the affected product in the first year or the depreciated value after or, for support services, the balance of any pre-paid amount or, for professional services, the amount paid. HP is not liable for claims caused or contributed to by:
- (a) unauthorised use of products, services or deliverables supplied by HP;
 - (b) HP's compliance with designs, specifications, instructions or technical information supplied by or on behalf of Customer;
 - (c) changes to products, services or deliverables made by or on behalf of Customer;
 - (d) Customer's non-compliance with the specifications or any other product specific terms or requirements in documentation provided by HP; or
 - (e) use of products, services or deliverables supplied by HP with products, software or services that are not HP-branded.
15. Confidentiality. Information exchanged under this Agreement will be treated as confidential if identified as such at disclosure or if the circumstances of disclosure would reasonably indicate such treatment. Confidential information may only be used for the purpose of fulfilling obligations or exercising rights under this Agreement, and shared with employees, agents or contractors with a need to know such information to support that purpose. Confidential information will be protected using a reasonable degree of care to prevent unauthorised use or disclosure for 3 years from the date of receipt or (if longer) for such period as the information remains confidential. These obligations do not cover information that: i) was known or becomes known to the receiving party without obligation of confidentiality; ii) is independently developed by the receiving party; or iii) where disclosure is required by law or a governmental agency.
16. Personal Information. Each party must comply with their respective obligations under applicable privacy and data protection legislation. HP does not intend to have access to personally identifiable information (PII) of Customer in providing services and Customer retains full responsibility for Customer PII at all times. If HP has access to Customer PII stored on a system or device of Customer, such access will likely be incidental and Customer confirms that HP may collect, use and disclose the PII for the purpose of complying with its obligations under this Agreement.

Term (if applicable): _____

17. Compliance. Customer must comply with all laws, regulations and legal requirements applicable to the exercise of Customer's rights, and performance of Customer's obligations, under this Agreement. Products, services and deliverables provided under this Agreement are for Customer's internal use and not for further commercialisation. If Customer exports, imports or otherwise transfers products and/or deliverables provided under this Agreement, Customer must comply with applicable laws and regulations and for obtaining any required export or import authorisations. HP may suspend its performance under this Agreement if required by laws applicable to either party.
18. Limitations and exclusions of liability.
- (a) Limitation. HP's cumulative liability to Customer for all claims made by Customer under or in connection with this Agreement whether arising under contract (including under any indemnity), negligence or any other tort, under statute or otherwise at all will not exceed in aggregate the greater of $1m or the total fees paid or payable to HP for the relevant Order in respect of which the claim arose.
 - (b) Exclusion. Neither party will be liable to other party in respect of any loss of profits, business, custom, revenue, anticipated savings, goodwill, data or contracts or any type of special, indirect, economic, punitive or consequential loss (including loss or damage suffered as a result of any claims brought by a third party) even if such loss was reasonably foreseeable or the party had been advised of the possibility of the other party incurring the same.
 - (c) Application: The limitations and exclusions under sections 18(a) and (b) apply to the full extent permitted by law. Nothing in this Agreement operates to exclude or limit liability: for death or personal injury caused by negligence; for fraud; HP's liability under section 14; for loss of or damage to tangible property caused by a party's breach of contract or negligence; for breaches of confidentiality under section 15; for HP's breach of a consumer guarantee under the ACL (subject to clause 24(b)); or for wilful misconduct (being a wilfully wrong act or omission which was known to be wrong and yet was intentionally persisted in with the intention of harming a person's safety or tangible property (excluding negligence or mistake)).
 - (d) Savings. HP will be not in breach of any of its obligations, or be liable under an indemnity, under this Agreement to the extent that the HP act or omission which would constitute such a breach, or give rise to liability under an indemnity, is caused by an act or omission by or on behalf of Customer.
19. Disputes. If Customer is dissatisfied with any products or services purchased under these terms and disagrees with HP's proposed resolution, we both agree to promptly escalate the issue to a Vice President (or equivalent executive) in our respective organizations for an amicable resolution without prejudice to the right to later seek a legal remedy.
20. Force Majeure. Neither party will be liable for performance delays nor for non-performance due to causes beyond its reasonable control, except for payment obligations.
21. Termination. Either party may terminate this Agreement (and all unfulfilled obligations) on written notice if the other:
- (a) commits a material breach of this Agreement and fails to remedy the breach within a reasonable period after being notified in writing of the details; or
 - (b) becomes insolvent, unable to pay debts when due, files for or is subject to bankruptcy or receivership or asset assignment.

Any terms in the Agreement which by their nature extend beyond termination or expiration of the Agreement will remain in effect until fulfilled and will apply to both parties' respective successors and permitted assigns. Expiry or termination of this Agreement does not affect accrued rights and remedies.

22. General. This Agreement represents our entire understanding with respect to its subject matter and supersedes any previous communication or agreements that may exist. Modifications to the Agreement may be made only by written amendment signed by both parties. Customer must not assign, novate or transfer any or all of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without HP's prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed). Sections 1 to 24 take precedence over the Supporting Material.
23. Law and jurisdiction. This Agreement is governed by the laws of New South Wales, Australia and the courts of that state have exclusive jurisdiction, except HP may commence proceedings to recover amounts due and payable in any country where the Customer Affiliate that placed the Order is located or in any country in case of urgent relief. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods does not apply.
24. Australian Consumer Law (ACL).
- (a) Subject to section 24(b), if Customer is a consumer within the meaning the ACL:
- (i) HP's products and services are supplied with consumer guarantees that cannot be excluded under the ACL. Customer has a right to a replacement or refund for a major failure and compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. Customer has a right to have the products repaired or replaced if they are not of acceptable quality and the failure is not a major failure;
 - (ii) nothing in this Agreement excludes or limits any right or remedy, or any guarantee, warranty or other term or condition implied or imposed by the ACL (including any consumer guarantee) which cannot be lawfully excluded or limited;
 - (iii) Customer's express warranties under this Agreement are in addition to Customer's rights and remedies under the ACL. Customer's consumer guarantee rights under the ACL prevail to the extent that they are inconsistent with any limitations contained in the express warranty;
 - (iv) if HP products are provided by Customer to HP for repair, they may be repaired using refurbished parts or may be replaced by refurbished products of the same type rather than being repaired. Customer data stored on products may be lost during repair;
 - (v) the express warranty period for HP's products, software and services is set out in the Supporting Material; and
 - (vi) if Customer wishes to receive support or claim a remedy under a warranty under this Agreement or the ACL, Customer should contact HP:

Hewlett-Packard Australia Pty Ltd

Term (if applicable): _____

despite any other provision of this Agreement, HP limits its liability for failure to comply with a consumer guarantee as follows:

- (i) provision of services: to any one or more of the following: re-supply of the services or payment of the costs of having the services re-supplied;
- (ii) provision of products: to any one or more of the following: replacement of the products or the supply of equivalent products; repair of the goods; payment of the costs of replacing the goods or of acquiring equivalent goods; or payment of the costs of having the products repaired; and
- (iii) otherwise, to the maximum extent permitted by law.

HP SUPPLEMENTAL DATA SHEET

This Supplemental Data Sheet provides additional general requirements and limitations that apply to HP's support offerings, which are set forth in detail in offering-specific datasheets with the exception of those support offerings delivered by HP Software. If you are a consumer within the meaning of the Australian Consumer Law (ACL) under the Australian Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth), you may have additional rights to those set out in this datasheet. Nothing in this Data Sheet excludes, restricts or modifies any condition, warranty, guarantee, right or remedy you may have at law (including a consumer guarantee under the ACL), which cannot be lawfully excluded or limited.

1. SERVICE ELIGIBILITY

- a. Hardware Support-General Eligibility. Hardware products must be in good operating condition, as reasonably determined by HP, to be eligible for placement under support. You must also maintain eligible products at the latest HP-specified configuration and revision levels.
- b. Return to Support. If you allow support to lapse, HP may charge you additional fees to resume support or require you to perform certain hardware or software upgrades.
- c. Use of Proprietary Service Tools. HP may require you to use certain hardware and/or software system and network diagnostic and maintenance programs (Proprietary Service Tools), as well as certain diagnostic tools that may be included as part of the your system. Proprietary Service Tools are and remain the sole and exclusive property of HP, and are provided "as is." Proprietary Service Tools may reside on your systems or sites. You may only use the Proprietary Service Tools during the applicable Support coverage period and only as allowed by HP and you may not sell, transfer, assign, pledge, or in any way encumber or convey the Proprietary Service Tools. Upon termination of Support, you will return the Proprietary Service Tools or allow HP to remove these Proprietary Service Tools. You will also be required to:
 - i. allow HP to keep the Proprietary Service Tools resident on your systems or sites, and assist HP in running them;
 - ii. install Proprietary Service Tools, including installation of any required updates and patches;
 - iii. use the electronic data transfer capability to inform HP of events identified by the software;
 - iv. if required, purchase HP-specified remote connection hardware for systems with remote diagnosis service; and
 - v. provide remote connectivity through an approved communications line.

2. SUPPORT LIMITATIONS

- a. Local Availability of Support. Some offerings, features, and coverage (and related products) may not be available in all countries or areas. In addition, delivery of support outside of the applicable HP coverage areas may be subject to travel charges, longer response times, reduced restoration or repair commitments, and reduced coverage hours.

Agreement Number: _____
Customer: _____
Effective Date: _____
Term (if applicable): _____

- b. Version Support. Unless otherwise agreed by HP in writing, and for those offerings not delivered by HP Software, HP only provides support for the current version and the immediately preceding version of HP branded software, and provided that HP branded software is used with hardware or software included in HP-specified configurations at the specified version level. Version means a release of software that contains new features, enhancements, and/or maintenance updates, or for certain software, a collection of revisions packaged into a single entity and, as such, made available to our customers.
- c. Relocation and impact on Support. Relocation of any products under support is your responsibility and is subject to local availability and fee changes. Reasonable advance notice to HP may be required to begin support after relocation. For products, any relocation is also subject to the license terms for such products.
- d. Multi-vendor Support. HP provides support for certain non-HP branded products. The relevant data sheet will specify availability and coverage levels and the support will be provided accordingly, whether or not the non-HP branded products are under warranty. HP may discontinue support of non-HP branded products if the manufacturer or licensor ceases to provide support for them.
- e. Modifications. You will allow HP, at HP's request, and at no additional charge, to modify products to improve operation, supportability, and reliability, or to meet legal requirements.

3. CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITIES

- a. Site and Product Access. You will provide HP access to the products covered under support; and if applicable, adequate working space and facilities within a reasonable distance of the products; access to and use of information, customer resources, and facilities as reasonably determined necessary by HP to service the products; and other access requirements described in the relevant data sheet. If you fail to provide such access, resulting in HP's inability to provide support, HP shall be entitled to charge you for the support call at HP's published service rates. You are responsible for removing any products ineligible for support, as advised by HP, to allow HP to perform support. If delivery of support is made more difficult because of ineligible products, HP will charge you for the extra work at HP's published service rates.
- b. Licenses. You may purchase available product support for HP branded products only if you can provide evidence that you have rightfully acquired an appropriate HP license for the products, and you may not alter or modify the products unless authorized by HP at any time.
- c. Software Support Documentation and Right to Copy. You may only copy documentation updates if you purchased the right to copy them for the associated products. Copies must include appropriate HP trademark and copyright notices.
- d. Loaner Units. HP maintains title and you shall have risk of loss or damage for loaner units if provided at HP's discretion as part of hardware support or warranty services and such units will be returned to HP without lien or encumbrance at the end of the loaner period.
- e. Hardware Support: Compatible Cables and Connectors. You will connect hardware products covered under support with cables and connectors (including fiber optics if applicable) that are compatible with the system, according to the manufacturer's operating manual.
- f. Data Loss and Data Backup. HP products are capable of retaining user-generated data. Prior to returning any product for support (including repair), to reconstruct your lost or altered files, data, or programs, you must maintain a separate backup system or procedure that is not dependent on the products under support. Support or repairs of products may result in the loss of data.
- g. Temporary Workarounds. You will implement temporary procedures or workarounds provided by HP while HP works on a permanent solution.

Agreement Number: _____
Customer: _____
Effective Date: _____
Term (if applicable): _____

- h. Hazardous Environment. You will notify HP if you use products in an environment that poses a potential health or safety hazard to HP employees or subcontractors. HP may require you to maintain such products under HP supervision and may postpone service until you remedy such hazards.
- i. Authorized Representative. You will have a representative present when HP provides support at your site.
- j. Product List. You will create, maintain and update a list of all products under support including: the location of the products, serial numbers, the HP-designated system identifiers, and coverage levels.
- k. Solution Center Designated Callers. You will identify a reasonable number of callers, as determined by HP and Customer (Designated Callers), who may access HP's customer Support call centers (Solution Centers) or online help tools.
- l. Solution Center Caller Qualifications. Designated Callers must be generally knowledgeable and demonstrate technical aptitude in system administration, system management, and, if applicable, network administration and management and diagnostic testing. HP may review and discuss with you any Designated Caller's experience to determine initial eligibility. If issues arise during a call to the Solution Center that, in HP's reasonable opinion, may be a result of a Designated Caller's lack of general experience and training, you may be required to replace that Designated Caller. All Designated Callers must have the proper system identifier as provided to you when Support is initiated. Solution Centers may provide support in English or local languages, or both.

4. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- a. Cancellation. You may cancel support orders or delete products from support upon thirty (30) days' written notice, unless otherwise agreed in writing. HP may discontinue support for products and specific support services no longer included in HP's support offering upon sixty (60) days' written notice, unless otherwise agreed in writing. If you cancel prepaid support, HP will refund you a pro-rata amount for the unused prepaid support subject to any restrictions or early termination fees as may be set forth in writing.
- b. Pricing. Except for prepaid support or if otherwise agreed in writing, HP may change support prices upon sixty (60) days' written notice.
- c. Additional Services. Additional services performed by HP at your request, and that are not included in your purchased support, will be chargeable at the applicable published service rates for the country where the service is performed.
- d. Replacement Parts. Parts provided under hardware support may be whole unit replacements, or be new or functionally equivalent to new in performance and reliability and warranted as new. Products presented for repair may be replaced by refurbished goods of the same type rather than being repaired. Refurbished parts may be used to repair the products. Replaced parts become the property of HP, unless HP agrees otherwise and you pay any applicable charges.
