Why have a recommended portfolio?

What's wrong with letting your employees buy whatever is on sale? A recommended portfolio allows you to manage your imaging and printing environment and helps reduce your total cost of ownership (TCO). For example, the TCO of an HP OfficeJet Pro 276dw MFP over three years is $1,524.63, in comparison to competitive devices that are two to three times the cost over three years.¹²

Total cost over 3 years¹²

Branch office/small workgroup product portfolio

The remote office extends the offerings and services of your business

A successful branch office seeks to replicate the capabilities of the headquarters in a smaller footprint. This must be accomplished economically with regard to both operational and budgetary efficiencies.

Things to consider

- Recommend a printing strategy for your branch offices
- Get the features you need in a compact device and make the most of limited workspaces
- Match the print volume of your remote offices to a device that supports that volume
- Help save time and money with a device that offers automatic two-sided printing
- Easily develop and deploy HP and third-party solutions with the HP Open Extensibility Platform (OXP)—and give workgroups what they need to succeed
- Help save IT time and resources by setting printing and security policies across your printing fleet
- Manage your remote printing devices via HP Web Jetadmin
- Implement an IT-sponsored program where hardware and supplies are purchased for the branch offices

Wireless performance is dependent on physical environment and distance from access point. Wireless operations are compatible with 2.4 GHz operations only. Remote printing requires an Internet connection to an HP web-connected printer. App or software and HP ePrint account registration may also be required. Wireless broadband use requires separately purchased service contract for mobile devices. Check with service provider for coverage and availability in your area. See hp.com/go/mobileprinting for more details. Some features require purchase of optional module.
