

Gain the flexibility to acquire HP Indigo digital printing presses on your terms

HP Financial Services can help customers find new ways to plan for, acquire, consume and adapt the technology needed for workplace transformation.

Gain technology that helps create a competitive advantage

Accelerate your business growth and streamline operations with the high-speed digital performance of HP Indigo presses, and the flexibility to acquire and consume new technology on your terms. From commercial jobs to labels and packaging, a technology investment solution from HP Financial Services can give you access to the industry-leading technology that powers your business, aligned to your budget and specific needs.

HP Indigo Financing 6 month ramp-up program

Minimize front-end costs when acquiring a new HP Indigo digital press and gain budget flexibility to ramp-up deployment, installation, and training for your new technology.

Ease into your new technology with a 6 month ramp-up on a 60 month term. Take advantage of lower payments during the first 6 months, followed by even payments for the remainder of the term. This enhanced flexibility can help you seize new business opportunities and drive greater productivity even faster.

Program details

- Eligible equipment includes HP Indigo 10000, 20000, 30000, 7000, 5000, WS6000, 8000 and 3000 Series
