HP Sales Subscription Services

Prices, shipping charges and payment

- a) Prices are valid for the entire period of the subscription quoted by HP for the applicable starting date during all the time of the service is available or until the customer cancel it.
Change orders that extend delivery service become new orders at prices in effect when HP receives the change orders..
- b) Prices are exclusive of, and Customer will pay, applicable sales, use, service, value added or like taxes, unless Customer has provided HP with an appropriate exemption certificate for the delivery jurisdiction.
- c) Payment terms are subject to credit card terms or HP credit approval depends on the chosen payment option provide by HP quote.
- d) Payment is automatically renewed.

Prices, shipping charges and payment terms shall be as specified on the HP Store, as determined when ordering online or over the phone. You will also be charged any applicable value added taxes; no value added taxes refund system for non-EU residents is currently available from HP for online or phone purchases. HP reserves the right to change prices published on the HP Store at any time. HP may change credit or payment terms at any time if, in HP's reasonable opinion, your financial condition, previous payment record or the nature of your relationship with HP so warrants.

For Paypal orders your account will be debited after passing the fraud check (normally 1 day) after the order acceptance.
For orders placed on credit terms payment is due, as a single payment for the full invoice amount, within 30 calendar days: the due date is printed on your invoice.

Invoicing

Invoices can be sent by email in PDF format to the email address provided on the order or by paper invoice sent by post (you need to select it at order placement).

If you do not have Adobe Reader, download here.

Orders

a) All orders are subject to acceptance by HP. HP will provide you with an order acceptance or rejection notice as soon as reasonably possible.

You agree that we may use Personal information provided by you in order to conduct appropriate anti-fraud checks. Personal Information that you provide may be checked against a credit reference or fraud prevention agency, which may keep a record of that information.

b) Customer will specify Ship To addresses within the country where the order is placed, unless otherwise agreed.

c) Customer may cancel orders for Products (except Custom Products) at any time. Customer will pay early termination fee (equivalent to a 6 months subscription charge) if cancellation is produced before the minimum period of commitment (12 months).

Order Cancellation

HP reserves the right to cancel any accepted order prior to delivery, at HP's discretion (whether or not payment was made), and this in case of any material errors in connection with your order, the price or other conditions published on the HP Store relevant for your order, or if any further verification of your credit conditions or records so warrants. If payment was made and your order is cancelled, HP will issue an appropriate credit to your account (or may contact you to collect information in order to do so). Rights to cancel regarding defective products are set out below.

Delivery

Orders are delivered as specified in the HP Store and determined by you when ordering online or over the phone.

We deliver only to Netherlands destinations. Standard delivery for those products in stock will typically be within 2 working days, for orders received and accepted before 4pm (this will not apply if additional checks and verifications by HP are required). For remote or offshore destinations delivery will normally be within 72 hours from order acceptance. You will receive an order acceptance from us by e-mail once we have satisfactorily verified your payment details. These times are estimates and cannot be guaranteed.

For those products which are not immediately available from stock, an approximate availability is shown alongside the product description. These products can be ordered and will be delivered as soon as they are available. You will be notified as soon as we get a delivery date. If an item on a 'group' order has an extended lead-time, we will send your items together when they are all in stock as we cannot process split orders. If you would like to order a similar item which is in stock or cancel an item which has limited availability within a 'group' order, you will need to cancel the full order and place another order(s) separately.

Delivery is free of charge for orders above £15 unless you request non-standard delivery service.

- Events beyond our reasonable control. HP will not be held responsible for any delay or failure to comply with our obligations hereunder if the delay or failure arises from any cause which is beyond our reasonable control.
- Time Limited discounts: HP may operate time-limited discounts.
- HP reserve the right to amend information, products and / or prices at any time.
- Electronic communications: When ordering from HP you consent to receive communications from us electronically relating to your order.

Title and Risk of Loss

Title to hardware products passes to you upon the later of full payment or delivery of products. Risk of loss and damage pass to you upon delivery

Defects on Delivery and Returns

Your acceptance of the products occurs upon delivery of the products and will be presumed unless you notify our Call Centre, as soon as reasonably possible but, in any case, no more than 30 days after delivery, that the products have been delivered in inoperable or otherwise defective condition.

If you reject any products, HP shall pick them up and, at your option, either replace or repair them, or refund the amounts you paid for them unless any such remedy is disproportionate or impossible. HP may test products upon return and charge you any costs incurred by HP if you wrongly claimed that returned products were inoperable or defective.

Commercial and Public Sector customers have no automatic right of return without cause (e.g damaged on arrival). In line with HP's standard Commercial Terms of Sale, customers will of course be able to return any product which is wrong or damaged following delivery and customers should notify HP as soon as possible in these circumstances.

Return of products purchased under a special offer or promotion or as part of a bundle may be subject to specific conditions, as described herein or otherwise communicated to you. No refund is allowed for individual products purchased as part of a bundle or under a voucher promotion jointly with other products, but HP will either (i) replace such individual product or (ii) have returned the whole product bundle or the whole order and refund the amounts you paid. HP reserves the right to be reimbursed for any promotional discounts applied on other products you purchased if such discounts were dependent on the purchase of the product(s) returned to HP.

If you have accepted goods but a fault appears within the first 6 months after delivery, HP will at your request on notification, repair or replace the defective goods or, where such remedy is disproportionate or impossible, offer a refund or price reduction. From 6 months after delivery, you need to prove to HP that the defect was present at the time of delivery in order to invoke such rights. HP may test products upon return and charge you any costs incurred by HP if you wrongly claimed that returned products were inoperable or defective. If you do have a right of return, HP will either collect the products or pay the costs of returning them.

Warranty

All products are covered by HP's limited warranty, in accordance with the terms and limitations specified in the warranty statement bundled with such products.

HP products are provided with a manufacturer warranty (HP Limited Warranty). Please refer to the HP Limited Warranty Statement provided with your product for extensive description of your manufacturer warranty entitlements, scope and duration.

In addition, if you are a consumer according to EU Directive 99/44 you may have additional statutory rights for the lack of conformity of your product with the contract of sale. Such statutory rights are independent and complementary to the HP Limited Warranty and are not in any way affected by it.

According to the EU Directive 99/44, if a lack of conformity existing at the time of delivery becomes apparent within 2 years as from delivery of the product to you, consumers are entitled to have the product brought into conformity free of charge by repair or replacement, or to have an appropriate reduction made in the price or the contract rescinded with regard to such product.

Unless proved otherwise, any lack of conformity which becomes apparent within six months of delivery of the product shall be presumed to have existed at the time of delivery unless this presumption is incompatible with the nature of the products or the nature of the lack of conformity.

HP Support-Pack

Should you purchase an HP Support Pack, HP will provide those maintenance and support services you ordered in accordance with the applicable service description and subject to the conditions and limitations specified in the applicable terms

Software Licences

HP software products are subject to HP's standard licence terms posted in the HP Store. Non-HP software products and, exceptionally, some HP software products, may be subject to different licence terms, as provided with such products.

Limitation of Liability

If we fail to comply with these Terms, we are responsible for loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breach of the Terms or our negligence, but we are not responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if it is an obvious consequence of our breach or if it was contemplated by you and us at the time we entered into this contract.

HP will not be liable for loss of data as it expects you to make appropriate arrangements to back up your data.

HP does not exclude or limit liability for death or personal injury (including to the extent caused by its negligence), for wilful default, for any breach of any undertaking as to title, quiet possession and freedom from encumbrance implied by applicable law, for fraud, fraudulent misrepresentation or any misrepresentation as to a matter fundamental to its ability to perform contractual obligations or for any other liability that cannot be excluded or limited by law.

Protection of Personal Data

You agree that any personally identifiable information you provide to us in connection with the HP Store may be dealt with by HP in accordance with the terms specified in the HP Privacy Statement available at the bottom of the HP Store web pages.

Other applicable terms

Sales are governed by the laws of the country and locality of delivery within the European Union (EU) and the European Free Trade Association (EFTA). You must comply with all applicable export licensing laws if you export the products.

You may have additional rights under your local statutory or consumer laws, which provide you with other remedies. To the extent that these Terms, HP's limited warranty, standard licence or Support Pack terms are inconsistent with the statutory laws of the country where HP has delivered the product(s) or support to you, they are deemed modified to be consistent with such local law.

Important Note: If you, for any reason, do not have access to any of the conditions referenced in these Terms, such as the HP Privacy Statement or HP Software Licence Terms, we ask you to contact the HP Call Centre and ask for a copy. HP Hardware Service support services are performed using generally recognized commercial practices and standards. HP is not liable for the performance or non-performance of third party vendors, their products, or their support services.

Intellectual Property Rights

No transfer of ownership of any intellectual property will occur under this Agreement. Customer grants HP a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free right and license to any intellectual property that is necessary for HP and its designees to perform the ordered services.

Intellectual Property Rights Infringement

HP will defend and/or settle any claims against Customer that allege that an HP-branded Hardware Service support service as supplied under this Agreement infringes the intellectual property rights of a third party. HP will rely on Customer's prompt notification of the claim and cooperation with our defense. HP may modify the HP Hardware Service support service so as to be non-infringing and materially equivalent, or we may procure a license.
