

Metal Jet Production Service<sup>1</sup>

Expected availability first half 2019

1. HP does not provide manufacturing services. Customers work directly with and pay for manufacturing services provided by a trusted third-party manufacturing partner responsible for fulfilling the order. HP provides design compatibility check for HP Metal Jet printing. Metal Jet Production Service is expected to be available in the US and Western Europe.

2. These steps are based on the order volume, design complexity, and other factors, at the discretion of our manufacturing partner. Service availability and fulfillment subject to manufacturing partner discretion, expected availability first half 2019.
