

HP Education Solutions

Education has evolved in the 21st century. When schools, districts, and countries aren't equipped with the best that education has to offer, outcomes suffer. At HP, we're committed to building education solutions that combine always-connected access with immersive learning experiences to produce measurable outcomes.

Total Access

We believe that everyone—no matter who they are or where they come from—has the right to a quality education.

HP Education Edition tablets and notebooks encourage creativity, flexibility, and collaboration in the classroom and beyond.

End-to-end solutions in hardware, software, and services deliver total access to resources around the clock, anywhere in the world.

True Learning

Opportunities blossom when everyone is empowered to control their own educational experience.

Access to the support and training necessary to turn a device into an instrument of change.

Powerful instructional tools help students stay on task and to share their best work.

Meaningful Outcomes

Students must learn to think critically and work collaboratively as contributing members of a connected, global society.

Cutting-edge assessment technology verifies that students aren't just showing up at school, but actually learning.

Help students develop skills that are in demand—leading to a more prepared workforce ready for the jobs of tomorrow.
