Designer Biography

Chloe Nalwoga
Designer

Chloe Nalwoga is a 2017 graduate from Herriot Watt University with a BA in fashion textiles. Chloe also holds a diploma in fashion textiles from Glasgow Clyde College from 2014.

Chloe’s final project was for the high-end interiors market, targeting architects and interior designers looking for niche wallpapers and fabrics for their private and public clients. The wallpapers and fabrics were inspired by the found textures and the Paisley patterns.

Her work is often inspired by different concepts of culture, especially the African traditions and cultures. “I am adventurous in exploring and learning diverse textile concepts. I have a lot of plans for the future and my main goal is to work within the textiles industry, learning and creating design that will be used in the future. I am also very interested in interior design. I am planning on going down the route of designing textiles for interiors. I have a diverse number of skills that I have achieved; like hand-drawn art work, screen printing, sewing, pattern cutting, machine and hand embroidery.”
